

Christian Radio serves a much over-looked audience by broadcasting special news stories about happenings in the Christian community, playing inspirational music, and announcing events that serve these people. Please do NOT impose limits, otherwise, these people will not be served. Non-Christian folks already have their secular stations and an outlet for their opinions. Thank you.