Dear FCC:

Another day and no decision by the FCC. The only condition that should be put on this merger is that Xm, Sirius, shareholders and the consumer forgive the FCC for their neglect. The FCC and Chairman Martin are going to have to answer for this neglect and I hope it's in front of congress. If we can question baseball players about their neglect in taking steroids. We can question the FCC and Chairman Martin about their neglect and hidden agendas involving this merger. Do your job Senators and Representatives and demand answers. I'll talk to you guys tomorrow and every day until justice is done and this merger is approved.

Sincerely,

Ronald Strickler
