In re: Closed Captioning and Video Description of Video Programming – Implementation of Section 305 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 – Video Programming Accessibility

CGB-CC-0790 – Opposition to the Petition for Exemption from Closed Captioning Requirements Filed by Faith Cometh by Hearing Ministries

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Telecommunications for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Inc. (“TDI”), National Association for the Deaf (“NAD”), Deaf and Hard of Hearing Consumer Advocacy Network (“DHHCAN”), Hearing Loss Association of America (“HLAA”), Association of Late-Deafened Adults, Inc. (“ALDA”), American Association of People with Disabilities (“AAPD”), and California Coalition of Agencies Serving the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (“CCASDHH”) (collectively, “Commenters”) submit for filing in the above-captioned proceeding their opposition to the petition for exemption from the Commission’s closed captioning requirements filed by Faith Cometh by Hearing Ministries (the “Petition”).

The following is the Petition for exemption in its entirety:

“Faith Cometh By Hearing Ministries is requesting that you grant our ministries television program an ‘undue burden’ waiver at this time. Faith Cometh By Hearing is a small ministry that can’t afford to cover the cost of Closed Captioning at this time. The reasons our [sic] stated below:

1. We do not have the technical staff or capabilities.
2. We will be only broadcasting our Sunday service once per week in the in the Los Angeles area and our congregation is very small at this time to afford the necessary equipment. The only reason we can afford to even by [sic] the airtime is because we are buying the fire sale price of unsold airtime.

In conclusion we just can’t at this time afford the closed captioning and the purchase and production cots. If you have any further questions, please write or call us at ....”

Petitioner did not provide any information about its financial resources, the costs of closed captioning, any indication that Petitioner sought competitive pricing from multiple sources or sought to recoup the cost of closed captioning. Petitioner did not include an affidavit.

The Petition does not meet the statutory requirements necessary to support an exemption from the closed captioning rules.<sup>1</sup> Commenters oppose grant of the Petition because Petitioner has provided insufficient information to demonstrate and/or for the Commission to determine that it meets the undue burden standard for granting the Petition. Commenters recommend that the Petitioner be given 180 days either to comply with the closed captioning rules or to re-apply with sufficient information to allow the Commission and the public to determine whether the Petitioner's request meets the legal standard for granting a waiver.

I. The Legal Standard for Granting a Petition for Exemption

Section 713 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), requires that video programming be closed captioned, regardless of distribution technologies, to ensure that it is accessible to persons with hearing disabilities.<sup>2</sup> The Commission has the authority to grant a petition for an exemption from the closed captioning requirements upon a showing that the requirements would impose an undue burden on the video programming provider or video owner.<sup>3</sup> Congress defined "undue burden" to mean "significant difficulty or expense."<sup>4</sup>

A petition seeking a waiver of the captioning rules must demonstrate that compliance would result in an undue burden within the meaning of Section 713(e) and Section 79.1(f) of the Commission's rules.<sup>5</sup> Section 713 requires the Commission to consider four factors when determining whether the closed captioning requirements will impose an undue burden: (1) the nature and cost of the closed captions for the programming; (2) the impact on the operation of the provider or program owner; (3) the financial resources of the provider or program owner; and (4) the type of operations of the provider or program owner.<sup>6</sup>

Section 79.1(f) of the Commission's rules sets forth the Commission's procedures for seeking an exemption from the closed captioning requirements on the basis that compliance would impose an undue burden on the programmer.<sup>7</sup> A petition for an exemption from the closed captioning requirements must be supported by sufficient evidence to demonstrate that compliance with the requirements would cause an undue burden.<sup>8</sup> Such petition must contain a detailed, full showing, supported by affidavit, of any facts or considerations relied on by the petitioner.<sup>9</sup> It must also describe any available alternatives that might constitute a reasonable substitute for the captioning requirements.<sup>10</sup>

In the 2006 Anglers Exemption Order, the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau ("CGB") improperly created a new standard that ignored the "undue burden" analysis required by the Act, the Commission's rules, and Commission precedent. Instead, the CGB stated that any non-profit organization may be granted a waiver from the closed captioning rules if the organization does not receive compensation for airing its programming and if it may terminate or substantially curtail its programming or other activities important to its mission if it is required to caption its programming.<sup>11</sup> The Commission may not properly rely on the Anglers Exemption Order to determine whether Petitioner's request meets the undue burden standard. Commenters have sought review of the Anglers Exemption Order by the Commission and, accordingly, the Anglers Exemption Order is not final.<sup>12</sup> Moreover, the standard announced by the CGB in the Anglers Exemption Order was inappropriate because it failed to incorporate an "economically burdensome" or an "undue burden" standard as mandated by the Act and fails to require Petitioner to demonstrate the four factors listed above.

II. Petitioner Has Presented Insufficient Information to Demonstrate or Determine that Compliance with the Captioning Requirement Would Impose an Undue Burden

Petitioner requests an exemption from the closed captioning requirements, asserting that compliance would impose an undue burden on Petitioner. However, the Petition offers insufficient evidence to demonstrate or determine that compliance would impose an undue burden under the four statutory exemption factors. The Petition therefore does not meet the legal standard for granting a request for exemption of the closed captioning rules and should be denied.

Commenters respectfully submit that the Petition is not supported by sufficient evidence to demonstrate that compliance with the closed captioning requirements would impose an undue burden upon Petitioner as required by the statutory factors set forth under Section 79.1(f)(2) of the Commission's rules.<sup>13</sup>

First factor: The nature and cost of the closed captions. In judging the sufficiency of information filed to support a claim that the cost of implementing closed captioning will impose an undue burden, the Commission looks to whether the petitioner:

- (1) sought competitive pricing from multiple sources;
- (2) submitted copies of the correspondence received from such captioning companies, indicating a range of quotes;
- (3) provided details regarding its financial resources; and
- (4) sought any means to recoup the cost of closed captioning, such as through grants or sponsorships.<sup>14</sup>

Moreover, the Commission has stated that petitioners must make an effort to solicit captioning assistance from the distributors of its programming.<sup>15</sup> A petitioner must also provide the Commission the distributor's response to its solicitation.<sup>16</sup> Failure to provide the foregoing information and to establish that the Petitioner pursued other possible means of gaining captioning hinders the Commission's assessment of the impact of the cost of captioning on Petitioner.<sup>17</sup>

Second factor: The impact on the operation of the provider or program owner. A petition must provide sufficient information to indicate that compliance with closed captioning requirements will adversely affect the Petitioner's operations.

Third factor: the financial resources of the provider or program owner. Commission Rule 79.1(f)(2) provides that a petition for exemption "must be supported by sufficient evidence to demonstrate that compliance with the requirements would cause an undue burden."<sup>18</sup> Additionally, in determining whether the closed captioning requirements impose an undue burden, the Commission must consider the resources that the petitioner has chosen to devote to the program in the context of the overall budget and revenues of the petitioner – and not merely the cost of captioning in relation to a particular program.<sup>19</sup>

Fourth factor: The type of operation of the provider or program owner. In order for the Commission to determine whether the Petition is supported under the fourth factor, Petitioner must provide detailed information regarding its operations and explain why or how complying with the closed captioning requirements would result in significant difficulty for Petitioner because of the type of operations involved.

Here, Petitioner has not provided sufficient financial information to determine whether an undue burden would result under the four factors above.

Moreover, in the unlikely event that the Commission upholds the new standard that was improperly adopted in the Anglers Exemption Order, the Petition fails to satisfy that standard and should nonetheless be denied. Petitioner has neither shown that its programming would be terminated or substantially curtailed by providing closed captioning nor that closed captioning would curtail other activities important to Petitioner's mission. Unsubstantiated, self-serving statements that programming would be terminated or substantially curtailed or that Petitioner's mission would be curtailed are not evidence and do not justify an exemption. Additionally, Petitioner produces and airs its programming in furtherance of its mission and that mission will be furthered still when its programming is captioned to reach people who are deaf and hard of hearing. Accordingly, the Petition provides insufficient information to determine whether it is entitled to an exemption under the Anglers Exemption Order, to the extent that exemption is upheld.

The Petitioner also should not be granted an exemption simply because a portion of its revenue is derived from charitable contributions. It is well-established that charitable and religious organizations are not automatically exempted from the Commission's rules. The Commission recently reaffirmed this position, stating that any group, including any religious group, that "subjects itself to public interest obligations" must comply with the FCC rules.<sup>20</sup> Because Petitioner produces programming that is broadcast to the public, it must comply with the closed captioning obligations unless it satisfies the undue burden standard.

III. Conclusion

For the reasons discussed above, Petitioner's request for exemption from the closed captioning requirements fails to demonstrate that compliance with the requirements would cause an undue burden within the meaning of Section 713 of the Act. Accordingly, it should be denied.
