

please leave christian radio alone as it stands. there are too many commercial stations and non-commercial ones such as NPR. why would the fcc want to mix christians and non-christians together? doesn't the fcc have better things to do? cease and desist