

I am against any "localism" or regulations requiring radio stations to be regulated by the government, particularly the Fairness Doctrine. What happened to freedom of speech? God Almighty will be heard and His Name will be glorified in all the earth.