

I believe the new regs you are trying to put into place are outrageous. It is christian radio--let it be that. No other station is req to give a christian perspective so stop trying to make christians give a band aid to those who are not.