

I am against these new regulations that is being proposed upon of these radio stations. I am a christian and I will like the interference of the music that is played on the radio on the christian stations. This music is uplifting and encouraging. So I think that this new form of regulations is not good. Thanks and God Bless!!!