

Christian radio needs to be left alone. Everytime the government or any organization takes God out of something it goes straight to you know where.