

I am opposed to the new regulations proposed by the FCC that would make radio stations jump through many regulation hoops. Besides the expense and man power to complete these extra burdens, Christian radio operators are concerned about plans for the federal government to mandate certain types of programming. Many Christian stations are not-for-profit and may be forced to shut down if these regulations are put into place. Please do not enforce these regulations. Thank you.