Re: Petitioners' Alternative Rulemaking Proposal
CC Docket No. 96-128

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Yesterday, Pat Nolan, Vice President of the Prison Fellowship Ministry, Doane Kiechel, of Morrison & Foerster LLP, and the undersigned, representing petitioners Martha Wright, et al. ("Petitioners"), met with Chairman Kevin J. Martin, Penny Y. Nance, Special Advisor, Office of Strategic Planning and Policy Analysis, and Amy E. Bender, Legal Counsel to the Chief of the Wireline Competition Bureau, to discuss Petitioners' Alternative Rulemaking Proposal in the above-captioned docket ("Proposal"). The Proposal requests: (1) the adoption of benchmarks capping the interstate long distance debit calling and collect calling service rates charged to prison inmates and persons receiving collect calls from prisoners; and (2) a requirement that inmate calling service providers offer a debit calling option.¹

¹ Petitioners' Alternative Rulemaking Proposal, Implementation of the Pay Telephone Reclassification and Compensation Provisions of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, CC Dkt. No. 96-128 (Mar. 1, 2007) ("Proposal"); FCC Public Notice, Comment Sought on Alternative Rulemaking Proposal Regarding Issues Related to Inmate Calling Services, 22 FCC Rcd 4229 (WCB 2007).

The Petitioners' representatives discussed the issues raised by the Proposal and the urgent need for Commission relief and responded to questions from Chairman Martin. The Petitioners' representatives emphasized the excessiveness of interstate inmate long distance rates relative to any credible measure of costs and the Commission's plenary authority over interstate telecommunications rates.

The views expressed by the Petitioners' representatives tracked the positions set forth in Petitioners' filings in this proceeding as well as the discussion in the attached talking points, which were distributed at the meeting.

In accordance with Section 1.1206(b)(1) of the Commission's rules, this letter and attachment are submitted for inclusion in the record of the above-captioned docket. Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned with any questions or concerns about this letter or the issues discussed.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Frank W. Krogh
