

We support the permanent waiver for the Recon Scout. We use this for law enforcement activities, in emergency situations, when lives are often in danger. This unit can move throughout a building while other units are not mobile. We need the penetration ability to watch and control the unit from a safe distance.