

These new regulations are would strangle our freedom of speech through Christian radio. Why put extra burdens on these stations? Why give them more paperwork to fill out and make everyone on staff be there all the time?? There's no sense in doing all of this. If the government is that curious about what's played and the goings on of the station, then they can listen to it themselves!!