The public service department and staff at V-103/WAOK stations have provided an invaluable benefit to Hosea Feed The Hungry, (a 501 © 3 not for profit) and to the people of Atlanta and throughout the State of Georgia. Our partnership over the years has included radio remotes, interviews, public service announcements, assistance in developing marketing plans and visits by the celebrity radio personalities. The community service they have provided has meant substantial support for our organization and our services to the working poor and the homeless including:

- Distributing food to senior citizens and those who live in shelters and in outside homeless camps
- Providing rent assistance to those who are facing the loss of their homes or apartments
- Providing utility assistance for those who cannot afford the high prices of oil and have had their utilities disconnected
- Provision of temporary housing to mothers and children
- Producing yearly BACK TO SCHOOL JAMBOREE and HFTH ANNUAL CHRIST-MASS PARTY for needy children
- Daily counseling and case management for those who visit our HFTH Care Center needing a coordination of benefits, food, clothing, furniture, or other basic needs met
- Producing four annual holiday "HFTH Festivals of Service" which feature a medical clinic, home deliveries of 20,000 plates annually, clothing and toiletry distribution, free seven course meals for some 20,000 each event, Barbers Beauticians, hot showers and grooming services – all free of charge

The staff at V103 and WAOK stations have provided us with a much needed platform to tell our story and engage their listeners so that they have a vehicle to participate in volunteerism and assist us in resource development for our organization, now in its 38th year of operation. Without their assistance we would not be able to raise the resources necessary to do this great work. We thank them for their continued support as the homeless and the working poor face an even more severe economic challenge in the coming months.

Sincerely,

Elisabeth Omilami, Executive Director
