- Signal crossing for sight impaired is broken at intersection next to the area's largest employer of blind people

A comprehensive list of local news stories is attached as Exhibit 2.

- d. Locally Produced Programming: The following programs were produced by KDFW FOX 4:
- Football Sunday
 - Fifth Quarter
 - FOX 4 Cotton Bowl Special
 - Coverage of the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure
 - FOX 4 Texas Rangers Opening Day Special
 - Shopping Cents (consumer tips)
- e. Public Affairs Programming: KDFW FOX 4 is home to Insights, the oldest public affairs show in Dallas-Fort Worth. The weekly show (aired on Sundays at 8 a.m.) is a blend of news, information and entertainment, addressing issues and concerns of the community, particularly communities of color. Following are examples of stories covered over the past two years:
- Veterans Stand Down – A look at the plight of 26-million veterans in the U.S. and Puerto Rico. At least 1/3 of them are alone and homeless
 - Remembering Rosa Parks – The woman known as the Mother of the Civil Rights movement dies. Most people remember her because she refused to give up her seat on the bus to a White man. That incident sparked the Birmingham Bus Boycott
 - Native American Heritage Month Celebration – Highlighted a program at the Fort Worth Public Library saluting Native American custom, culture and heritage
 - Diabetes – November is Diabetes Awareness Month. More than 20-million Americans are now diabetic. Sharon Cox, a dietitian with the Parkland Health and Hospital System and a supporter of the American Diabetes Association talks about the importance of diet in preventing and controlling diabetes

The PSI campaign received wide acclaim and was aired on Spanish language stations across the state. FOX 4 received a special award for the initiative from the Greater Dallas Council, and the Texas Attorney General announced plans to take the campaign statewide.

III. PARTICIPATION IN COMMUNITY

Communicating with the community is an ongoing mission for KDFW FOX 4. Contact with special interest groups is a regular part of the station’s operation. FOX 4 News reaches out to community members with hundreds of personal appearances by staff members every year. News personnel speak with a wide variety of groups and organizations and frequently return with story ideas. Input is solicited in KDFW’s newscasts and website, and ideas and opinions are sought from the community via telephone, email and letters. In addition, field crews have daily contact with members of the community and organizations, a rich source of information and ideas for future programming.

Additionally, FOX 4 News staff members have deep roots in the community, and are constantly bringing in story ideas from fellow parents, church members, sports teammates, neighbors, etc. For several years, FOX4 News has invited the public to express opinions via forums such as Viewers Voice, Tell it to Tim, and What’s Buggin You. Viewers’ comments are used both on the air and as a source of story ideas.

IV. INTERNET

Myfoxdfw.com streams KDFW's 8 a.m. and noon weekday newscasts. During significant news events, or storm coverage, extended coverage is also streamed. The website provides an ongoing stream of live Doppler radar. During significant news events or storm coverage, the website utilizes chat rooms in which users can watch coverage and share information. Periodically, chat rooms are hosted by experts, newsmakers and on-air talent. The blogging community is robust and on-air talent regularly blog to inform users about upcoming or current stories; sharing additional details about news items; relating personal experiences; message boards are utilized in the same manner. One message board is dedicated to updating programming information, such as schedule changes.

The WAP site (<http://wap.myfoxdfw.com>) allows users to utilize mobile devices to stay up-to-date on news and weather.

SERVING THE PUBLIC INTEREST IN DALLAS-FORT WORTH

LOCAL STORIES

KDFW FOX 4's local news provides community service through consumer affairs pieces, severe weather updates, news investigations, and regular series pieces. We have a genuine commitment to local journalism and covering local news. Our commitment includes assigning reporters to specific community-based beats. This goes beyond coverage of local and county governments to include neighborhood issues, local political candidates and topics, stories important to the different minority communities and groups and organizations working in the various communities.

The news staff primarily works from the main office in downtown Dallas. They also work from bureaus in Fort Worth (Tarrant Co.) and Carrollton (Denton – Collin Co.). We have a diverse staff of reporters and producers to better cover the many different facets of this large market.

Of all the stories that KDFW covers every year, there are many that have significant implications in our service to the community. Among the listings below include live coverage of North Texas floods from our helicopter where we assisted emergency rescue teams in spotting and rescuing flood victims as the waters rose.

The following is a representative sample of important local stories produced between November 1, 2005 and October 31, 2007.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS SHOWS

KDFW FOX 4 is home to the oldest public affairs show in Dallas-Fort Worth. For nearly 30 years, INSIGHTS has addressed the issues and concerns of the community, particularly communities of color within our area. It is a fine blend of news, information and entertainment. INSIGHTS is a :30 min program that airs Sundays at 8am.

Number of hours per week: 0.5.

Following are stories covered over the past two years:

November 2005

Veterans Stand Down – A look at the plight of 26-million veterans in the U.S. and Puerto Rico. At least 1/3 of them are alone and homeless.

Remembering Rosa Parks – The woman known as the Mother of the Civil Rights movement dies. Most people remember her because she refused to give up her seat on the bus to a White man. That incident sparked the Birmingham Bus Boycott.

Native American Heritage Month Celebration – Highlighted a program at the Fort Worth Public Library saluting Native American custom, culture and heritage.

Mortgage Scam – FOX 4 news Investigative reporter, Becky Oliver talks about her special report on what happens when homes go into foreclosure due to a real estate scam. 13 families lost their homes. The story turned into an FBI investigation.

Nigton – A long time issue comes to a head with a town vote in White Settlement. A tiny little town settled by former slaves in Northeast Trinity County was called Nigton. Many found the name offensive today. The vote was to not change the name.

St. Philip's School – The Dallas Star Hockey team roasted owner, Don Hicks as a fundraiser for St. Philip's School. St. Philips, also known as "The miracle on Pennsylvania Avenue", is a South Dallas private school for severely underprivileged students. The students have excelled remarkably since the school opened its doors more than 10 years ago.

Gratitude - Just how important is it to be grateful? Discussion with gratitude consultant Lysa Rohan who says living in a state of gratitude is good for your health and for unblocking gifts that are yet to be experienced.

Diabetes – November is Diabetes Awareness Month. More than 20-million Americans are now diabetic. Sharon Cox, a dietitian with the Parkland Health and Hospital System and a supporter of the American Diabetes Association talks about the importance of diet in preventing and controlling diabetes.

Cooking for a Cause – Texas Ranger Dave Delucci cooks his blonde brownies as he promotes the Texas Rangers Cook Book which benefits Happy Hill Farms, a residential non-profit for children temporarily removed from their homes.

North Texas Food Bank - Because of the number of people who came to North Texas following Hurricane Katrina, the North Texas Food Bank is running short of food. A representative joined us to ask for donations.

Abstinence and Teens - Our host, Shaun Rabb, is very active in supporting abstinence for young people. He introduces a program by the Urban League of Greater Dallas which sends out this message to young people. Children as young as 10 years old have been cited for having sex and may of them have had sexually transmitted diseases.

Roy Williams Safety Net Foundation - Dallas Cowboy Roy Williams has an organization to help single moms. His mom and sister joined us to talk about how his sister, a single mom, was his inspiration for the organization, the women they have helped and how other moms can get assistance through the organization.

African Pastor

A very moving account of Kenyan minister Pastor Mohammed Roba and his Wife, Phina, who had to flee Kenya to avoid religious persecution. Kenya is primarily Muslim and the Roba's converted to Christianity. The problem is that they had to leave behind their then 4 year old daughter behind. Over the years they had to send money back to Kenya to ensure her safety while in hiding. Just this year, they were united with 9 year old Tabitha. She is now trying to learn how to live in this country with her parents and new little brother.

Father's Day Special

We dedicated the entire program to the examination of a father's relationship with his daughter. Sometimes men do not realize that how they interact with their daughters early on will determine much of how she handles men and relationships in her life. We invited two women to join us. One had a very rough relationship with her father and her life was lacking for several things. The other was truly a daddy's girl and that influenced who she looked for as a mate. Also, on the panel was Chris Powell, director of "Mantalk" a project at the Potters House in Dallas and the father of two teenage girls.

NON-PROGRAMMING PARTICIPATION IN COMMUNITY

Communicating with the community is an ongoing mission for KDFW FOX 4. Contact with special interest groups is a regular part of our operation. FOX 4 News reaches out to community members with hundreds of personal appearances by staff members every year. News personnel speak with a wide variety of groups and organizations and frequently return with story ideas. In our newscasts and website we also solicit input, and constantly receive ideas and opinions from the community via phone, email and letters. In addition, every day field crews have personal contact with an enormous variety of people and organizations, ranging from law enforcement to medical personnel to education experts to every day people. Those contacts are a rich source of information and ideas.

Also, FOX 4 News staff members have deep roots in the community, and are constantly bringing in story ideas from fellow parents, church members, sports teammates, neighbors, etc.

In addition, for several years FOX4 News has invited the public to express opinions via forums including Viewers Voice, Tell It To Tim, and What's Buggin You. Comments viewers call or send it are used both on the air and as a source of story ideas.

Below is a detailed list of some of our other ascertainment activities:

November 2005

Dr. Jay Zo spoke with us about customs and tradition in the Korean Family as they greet the New Year. He agreed to a segment of Insights that featured special Korean dishes and what they mean and cultural dancers who performed a tradition Korean Dance.

February 2006

14th Annual Trumpet Awards

We attended this event in Las Vegas, Nevada that salutes African American achievement.

Star Spangled Fourth 2006

We began our conversations with the City of Garland about this year's Star Spangled Fourth. Downtown Garland was undergoing renovations. So, the event would have to be relocated. The City was concerned about our support since their event was not as big, (with concerts and fireworks), as in years past. We understood that the arrangement was temporary and continued our support.

Red Hot and Snazzy

United Negro College Fund Fundraiser. Anchor Clarice Tinsley participated in the event.

Congresswoman Eddie Bernice Johnson's Women's Advisory Board Meeting

We attended her annual women's advisory meeting. This year she talked about Iraq, how FEMA botched the hurricane efforts on the Gulf coast, and about federal funds to education and the Medicare prescription drug program that are available in North Texas.

March 2006Caregiving

We emceed a special program about care giving at the Jewish Community Center of Dallas. We invited Cynthia Salzman-Mondale, a filmmaker who produced a film about her father who had Alzheimer's to join me for a segment of Insights to promote the event.

Earning By Learning

We were approached by this organization to help them get the word out that they would reward students with money for learning. We supported with Insights and a story which aired on News about how the program is funded and how it works.

Big Steps to De Feet Cancer

We aired a special story about this project of Dallas Maverick Dirk Nowitzki to help raise money for the Children's Cancer Research Fund.

Faith Summit and Job Fair

The Friendship West Baptist Church sought our assistance in promoting their job fair. We did with our community bulletin board and Insights.

Free Prom Dress

Each year FOX 4 supports the Free Prom Dress Giveaway on Insights and on our community calendar. The project offers less privilege young ladies free gowns for prom.

Children's Cancer Fund Luncheon

Anchors Clarice Tinsley and Steve Eagar serve as emcees for the event and several other of our personalities escort the children during the fashion show.

April 2006

Girls, Incorporated

We talked with Ruth Thomas and some of the girls from Girls, Incorporated about their upcoming fundraiser luncheon and their goals for the coming year.

May 2006

The Texas Land Board

We had a conversation with a representative of the Texas Veterans' Land board. They call each year to update us on their services available to vets.

El Centro Community College – I met with a professor at El Centro Community College about a new “trade” course that the school would begin offering. It is a certified course to train sommeliers. There is a shortage of these wine experts, especially among women. We followed with a recruitment segment on our public affairs program, “Insights”.

Autism

One of our own employees, engineer Rodney Kyle, has an autistic child. He is very active in the organization Autism Now. We talked about an upcoming fundraiser Walk Now and supported Rodney with segments on Insights and news.

Graffiti Wipeout Day

City Councilwoman, Angela Hunt called about her efforts to remove graffiti around the city of Dallas. The weekend project was called Graffiti Wipeout Day. We supported her with coverage on our public affairs program and news.

Fort Worth Metropolitan Black Chamber of Commerce

Chamber president, Dee Jennings and his wife and head of the auxiliary, Gwen Barbee came to the station to discuss the many projects that the chamber is involved in including scholarship programs, mentoring for small businesses and other projects. They made an appearance on Insights.

June 2006

Father-Daughter Panel

In honor of Father's Day, we were invited to participate in a panel at the Potter's House Church in Dallas about a woman's relationship with her father. The audience was all male. Some were estranged from their daughters. Others wanted to know how to make their relationship with their daughters more meaningful.

July 2006

Susan G. Komen Foundation

We attended the board meeting of the Susan G. Komen Foundation to discuss the 2006 Race for the Cure. We adopted this organization for a year round sponsorship.

Through the Eyes of Children

We worked with the Dallas Independent School District on this project to promote photography among less fortunate students. The students shot photos capturing images that were important to them in their communities. Those photos appeared in exhibits at the African American Museum and the Dallas Museum of Art. We supported with produced promos and our public affairs program.

State Fair of Texas/Sustainable Skylines

Texas boasts the largest state fair in the country. We met with officials of the Fair to find out if there was some way we could help while maximizing our presence there. We creatively decided to do a green scavenger hunt in conjunction with the City of Dallas and its Sustainable Skylines project.

Terminal B Celebration

We invited our Media Partner interns to get a taste of community outreach by joining me for the celebration of Terminal B at the Dallas Fort Worth Airport. What they learned is that events like this are great networkers and that you do indeed pick up information and stories that can be of value to the station.

Sudan Basketball

Our sports anchor/reporter set up a meeting for me with Deng Bol, a Dallas Maverick basketball player. Bol has a special program to help recruit players from his native Sudan. There is lots of poverty there and if basketball teams would look to the Sudan to recruit players many of the young men, all very tall, could dig their way out of poverty as he did.

August 2006

US Marine Corp Toys for Tots Campaign 2006

We picked up our talks with the Marines as we get closer to launching this year's campaign as the television partner. The campaign launches Thanksgiving weekend.

Mayfest

In an effort to extend our community outreach “west of the Trinity River” into Tarrant County, we approached the Junior League of Fort Worth and offered to be the Media Sponsor of one of the largest events in Fort Worth, “Mayfest”. We had several good conversations on community service and became their sponsor, supporting the event on-air with new coverage and promotion. Several station employees also volunteered at the event.

October 2006

Komen Race for the Cure – Dallas

This is one of the station's biggest sponsorships and it benefits the Susan G. Komen Foundation for breast cancer research.

Komen for the Cure – Sisters Network

We met with members of this branch of the Susan G. Komen Foundation which is a support group for women of color. Also, we produced a segment with them for Insights as we promoted the Race for the Cure.

Toys for Tots

We continued our meetings with the USMC Reserve as we planned the Toys for Tots campaign for this year.

Plano Community Forum

Rochelle Brown emceed the 25th Anniversary celebration of the Plano Community Forum. The PCF is a primarily African American non-profit group which raises funds for a number of social and civic non-profit organizations in Plano.

Alzheimer's Foundation of America

Rochelle Brown moderated a panel during the national meeting of the Alzheimer's Foundation of America and taped a segment for Insights.

November 2006

US Marine Corp Reserve Toys for Tots

We continued our regular meetings with the USMC Reserve Toys for Tots Campaign which kicked off Thanksgiving weekend. News and Insights produced many stories leading up to the event. One which was most touching came through our station relationship with Girls, Inc. A young teenage girl wished simply for windows for her home. She and her mother get really, really cold during the winter because of broken and loose windows. Toys for Tots ends mid-December. The 2006 campaign netted more than 180,000 toys for more than 90,000 families.

December 2006

Crossroads Community Center

We received a call one day from a man who wanted to help pay utility bills of needy families during the winter. He was with the Crossroads Community Center. Since that call and an Insights appearance, we have received hundreds of calls and hundreds of people have taken advantage of the services there.

Leukemia & Lymphoma Society

We met with Sarah Bayley and company from the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society about their fundraising luncheon in January to inquire about how we can help them. Our anchor, Clarice Tinsley emceed the event and we produced spots to support it. Later, we met with another member of that organization about a NASCAR/Texas Motor Speedway event coming up in September 2006.

January 2007S.M. Wright Foundation

Both News and Insights delivered information on the local S.M. Wright Foundation which offers assistance with food for the poor.

MLK Parade

We supported the Elite News MLK Parade celebrating the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. with mentions on air and on our community calendar.

Mi Escuelita Food Project

Supported this Headstart program for pre-schoolers who speak Spanish only. Anchor Baron James participated in a fundraiser for the school. We later produced stories and ran the organization's info on our community calendar.

Other Organizations we supported with on air mentions and our community calendar are: 5th Annual 2007 "Partners for Kids" Luncheon, The Crow Collection of Asian Art Celebrating Chinese New Year, Crossroads Community Center, The Samaritan Inn, and a shelter for the homeless, Dallas Black Dance theater.

February 2007National Black Aids Awareness Day

February 7th was Black Aids Day. It is a day of awareness for this disease. Since 1981 AIDS has killed more than 20 million people. African Americans account for 40% of those deaths.

Boys and Girls Clubs of Arlington Luncheon

Event featured American Idol star Ruben Studdard. We served as the media sponsor with spot supporting the event, Insights and News.

Amachi Program of the Big Brother Big Sister organization

Insights and News supported this program which mentors young children whose parents have been incarcerated.

Craig Watkins Makes History

Attorney Craig Watkins becomes Dallas County's first African American District Attorney. In honor of Black History Month we profile his life.

Links Incorporated

This 50 year old organization sponsors the Ebony Fashion Show each year. We were asked to support the event with guests on Insights.

March 2007

Cheese

The Cheese drug problem was sweeping North Texas. We teamed with the Partnership for a drug free America and Dallas County Drug and Alcohol organization to produce a spot to encourage kids not to do the deadly drug. The state of Texas was impressed with our work and bought airtime so that the spot could be aired statewide.

Other organizations supported through our on air community calendar include: The long Road Home Program Mobile Housing Assistance Program for families who want to return to Louisiana following the deadly Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, Contact Crisis Line's 40th Anniversary celebration, The MS Walk and Run for Hope, 2nd Annual Coach William Toles/Jordan CDC Charity Golf Tournament, Women's Business Council Southwest Round-Up and tax help info from the American Association of Retired Persons.

April 2007

Women's Business Council Southwest

Rochelle Brown emceed this annual event known as Round-Up. It is a day of networking and making deals for female business owners.

Remembering Mom Foundation

Remembering Mom is an organization designed to help those who have lost their parents through the grief process. We supported with a community calendar entry about their upcoming luncheon and an interview on Insights.

May 2007

Roy Williams Safety Net Foundation

FOX 4 was named the media sponsor for this organization started by Dallas Cowboy Roy Williams. The organization support single moms. We were invited to join the board of the organization. We featured several time on Insights and Good Day. We sponsored the Golf tournament June 18th.

Mayors Summer Reading Program

We kicked off the 2007 program. Anchor Baron James and Rochelle Brown were very instrumental in getting out meeting with the children.

The Black Academy of Arts and Letters

We helped this arts organization celebrate 23 years in Dallas to help young people sharpen their creative talents. Rochelle Brown served on an advisory board to help launch the celebration show.

June 2007

New Garland Mayor

The City of Garland gets its first African American mayor, Ronald Johnson. KDFW's has known Johnson for many years through the station's work with Star Spangled Fourth, a summer event sponsored by FOX 4. We featured him on Insights.

July 2007

Hispanic Health Issues

Diabetes, obesity and cardiovascular disease is reaching epidemic proportions in the Hispanic community. We joined with the American Heart Association to urge everyone to come to their health fair.

Shoes for My Children

We supported this organization and Rev. Bernita Tyler as she collects new shoes for children in a back to school drive. We featured her on Insights and our community calendar.

Mayor's Back to School Program

We supported this annual event with news coverage, Insights and our community calendar.

August 2007

Million Dad March

Insights host Shaun Rabb discovered this story. It is a march to encourage African American Dads to take their children to school on the first day and be involved in their educations throughout the year. Insights and News coverage.

Hopeful Smiles

Attitudes and Attire, a non-profit organization which gets women ready to enter the workplace have added another dimension – dental work. Dentists throughout the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex offer free dental to their clients who cannot afford it.

September 2007

Pit Bull Attacks

This began as a news story that really moved me because so many children were being injured and killed by these dogs. I pulled together a panel of breeders, shelter representatives and a mother who had just lost a child to discuss what can be done about the issue.

October 2007

Sustainable Skylines

In an effort to continue our push to educate our viewers about the good green lifestyle, we connected with Sustainable Skylines, a project of the City of Dallas. We invited Councilwoman Linda Koop and Laura Fiffick from the city's Environmental Quality department to give us all the details about their project.

Employees (including talent) and their volunteer efforts:

KATHY SAUNDERS – Board Member, Girls Inc. of Greater Dallas; Vice Chairwoman of Cotton Bowl Athletic Association.
