

this is past the point of absurd! everybody employed by our government should be ashamed of themselves. holding stockholders and us subscribers in a holding pattern for so bleedin long. for a simple no brainer. cancelling the june 12th public hearing so mr martin can go pack for his paid by us citizens trip to go to asia of all things.