Dear Chairman Martin:

I am writing this letter to inform you that I have known Herb Perry for two years. I am the public relations representative for Morton's The Steakhouse, TREVI Italian Restaurant and Bertolini's Authentic Trattoria in Las Vegas.

I first met Herb at a press conference at Morton's, where the restaurant was unveiling its new Velocity Broadcasting features in the boardroom. Herb was very engaging and asked great questions that were valuable to the media there.

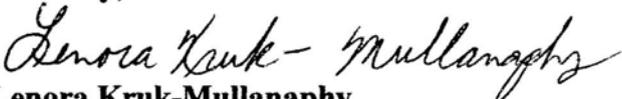

When Morton's was featuring its Women in Spirit wine dinner and silent auction to raise funds for the American Red Cross, Herb invited me on CBS to speak about the event. Herb is the kind of person who makes sure his guest is comfortable speaking with him, which makes it easier to talk on radio. He asks targeted questions and is informative and knowledgeable.

Herb invited Jeff Carpenter, a bartender at Bertolini's Authentic Trattoria, who raised money for the victims of Hurricane Katrina on his show. Jeff spoke about his efforts to donate all of his tips from one night of bartending and match them with his own money and gave $2,000 to the American Red Cross for the Hurricane Katrina victims. This was interesting for the audience and great community relations for the surrounding area. Herb is a champion for the community and for volunteerism.

It's been a pleasure knowing and dealing professionally with Herb. He is always professional and a warm human being. Those two characteristics combined make him outstanding as a radio host and draws guests to his show.

Thank you for giving me this opportunity to let you know how appreciative I am to have a colleague and friend in Herb.

Sincerely,
