Dear FCC:

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing to express my disgust with the FCC. The FCC has never been a concern of mine until this entity decided to dramatically delay the merger of the two aforementioned companies. It appears, whether accurate or not, that the FCC is a puppet to lobbyist in DC. It also appears, again whether accurate or not, that these lobbyist and the FCC as their puppet are attempting to bankrupt one if not both of the satellite radio companies before a decision is made on the merger. I'd like to know what the hold up could possibly be considering that the Department of Justice has given its opinion that no monopoly will exist after this merger. I am a subscriber to both XM and Sirius, and I am going to sorely miss listening to the wonderful programming offered by each after the "puppet" successfully kills both companies. Needless to say, I support this merger. Needless to say, I do not support the FCC, and I believe this whole process should be investigated. If Congress feels that it is for the good of the people to have hearings and investigations regarding steroids and covert filming in the NFL, then they should certainly feel that it is worth a little time to investigate which FCC commissioners have a little more "green" in their bank accounts right now.

In conclusion, I will reiterate that this is absolutely sickening.

Sincerely,

James W. Gillespie III
