Dear FCC:

As a United States citizen and taxpayer I am completely outraged by the time and effort that has been put forth in delaying and outright blocking of the Sirius and XM satellite radio merger. With so many other major issues to deal with in our country and abroad, how do lawmakers and the FCC have a year and a half to scrutinize a merger that has been declared legal by the DOJ? This is unacceptable and an enormous waste of my tax dollars. The Senators and FCC Officials sitting on their hands should be ashamed of their delay tactics. As government officials, it is your responsibility to act with honesty and integrity, in this case you are acting with neither.

Sincerely,

Rex A Morgart Jr
