

Internet Access for Disabled by Edward Janus

Letter Internet Access for Disabled.

My name is Edward Janus.

I am a Disability Advocate and Activist.

My Campaign and Mission is Fighting for the Disabled Community by Making Our Voices Heard.

My motto: The Organizing Power of the Internet Empower Persons With Disabilities. My online activism web site: www.EdwardJanus.net

Tens of millions of Americans rely upon an open Internet in their daily lives.

And the Disabled Community whom are homebound Shut-In and no means of transportation. All their Outside Business may be done through the Internet Only.

For Persons With Disabilities, if they live alone this means Survival.

Like myself, I am a permanently disabled, amputee, and confined to a wheelchair. Also being deaf cannot hear on the telephone. All my "Outside Business"™ is done through the "Internet Online"™ such as my banking, paying my bills™s, making purchases, filling out business forms and documents, writing emails and letters, looking up important information and I order groceries right to my front door. This is My ONLY means to "Outside World"™ and Doing My Daily Business and Tasks. And running my house.

Our elected leaders must protect our basic right to communicate from those who want to take it from us. The legislation calls for a nationwide series of public hearings about what the future of the Internet should look like -- an important step to bring these crucial issues into the light of day.

I have already written several letters to politicians, signed a bunch of petitions and posted all over the blogs and web sites regarding all the Save the Internet and Net Issues.

Sincerely,

Edward Janus | Disability Advocate and Activist
