

If this docket is about fake messages left about a emergency and the call back number left is a foreign company (809),which charges you high rates. Then I hope the FCC can do something to stop this telephone problem.