

I think that the proposed merger would provide the companies the ability to better serve those who subscribers in the marker who have radio systems in one vehicle (GM) and another (Chrysler) which are on two different systems requiring two subscriptions. I would like to be able to combine the two under one subscription to get better pricing.