Dear FCC:

Â I am not sure if you are aware, but there is a grassroots campaign in the making to oust any of you that are stalling the decision to merge sirius and XM. you must make a decision, sitting on this decision just shows how much of a beauracracy you are, wasting people's tax dollars. It can be summed up in 3 words. "MAKE A DECISION". its been way too long. either approve the merger or reject, but do something NOW! Those of you stalling the process that are in elected positions or appointed positions will be remembered later on. Count your blessings that you have a job right now, because the longer you wait, the less likely you will have a job in the future.

Sincerely,

Robert C Thomson
