Re: Closed Captioning Requirement

Dear Media Bureau/Federal Communications Commission,

This letter is in response to the F.C.C.'s Closed Captioning requirement effective January 1, 2000. Please accept this letter as a petition for exemption on the basis on undue burden.

Seneca Creek Productions Love of The Hunt and its video programming producers and video programming owners, Brad Lockwood and Sheri Lockwood, petition for Full Exemption from the Closed Captioning Requirement, state as follows:

1. That Petitioners are the owners and producers of Seneca Creek Productions Love of The Hunt. A hunting and adventure television show based in Brockway Pennsylvania.
2. That Seneca Creek Productions Love of The Hunt. production company and owners consist of Brad Lockwood and Sheri Lockwood, husband and wife. There are no other employees with the company.
3. That Seneca Creek Productions is broadcast 26 weeks on The Sportsman Channel. A small television network located New Berlin WI.
4. That 13 shows are produced each year, and each show is thirty minutes in duration.
- 5 That for the Petitioners to provide for closed captioning would constitute an undue burden upon Seneca Creek Productions Love of The Hunt Brad Lockwood and Sheri Lockwood in the following respects:
  - a. The Petitioners do not have the technical capabilities to provide for closed captioning;
  - b. That to obtain the closed captioning service will cost approximately $488.00 per show or $6,344.00 per year. The cost quoted is for "pop up" captions;
  - c. That Petitioners would be unable to produce and market Seneca Creek Productions Love of The Hunt if they are required to provide for closed captioning;
  - d. That Petitioners do not possess the financial means to absorb the cost of closed captioning because of cost and budget restraints.
  - e. That the 13 new shows produced yearly for the Sportsman Channel have to be re-edited in regards to introduction. narration and commercials in order to be re-broadcast for 13 additional weeks, therefore greatly increasing the amount and cost of closed captioning.

We respectfully submit this request.

Sincerely,

Bradley Lockwood
Sheri Lockwood
Seneca Creek Productions
Love of the Hunt.
