SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT OF PCIA – THE WIRELESS INFRASTRUCTURE ASSOCIATION ON THE STATUS OF THE PCIA AWS CLEARINGHOUSE

PCIA – The Wireless Infrastructure Association (“PCIA”) hereby submits this report, pursuant to the AWS Clearinghouse Order released by the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau in the above-captioned proceeding, regarding the activities of the PCIA AWS Clearinghouse to date.¹ Pursuant to the AWS Clearinghouse Order, certain AWS and MSS licensees and self-relocating FS incumbents are required to file relocation cost data with a Commission-approved clearinghouse in order to be eligible for cost-sharing reimbursements under the Commission’s rules.²

During the period beginning January 1, 2008 through June 30, 2008, the PCIA AWS Clearinghouse received registrations for seven relocated links, representing a total of

$1,561,193 paid to relocate these links (including $1,418,373 for relocation costs and $142,820 for required tower replacement or modification). Since its inception, the PCIA AWS Clearinghouse has received registrations for eleven relocated links, representing a total of $2,661,194 paid to relocate these links (including $2,401,809 for relocation costs and $259,385 for required tower replacement or modification). PCIA has not made any adjustments to the revenue projections or fee structures associated with the PCIA AWS Clearinghouse.

Additionally, drawing upon PCIA's extensive experience administering the PCS Microwave Clearinghouse, PCIA has continued to educate current and prospective cost-sharing participants about the clearinghouse process. The PCIA AWS Clearinghouse website, which was launched on March 19, 2007, provides useful information with respect to both the PCIA AWS Clearinghouse and the cost-sharing process generally.
