

The woodstown-Pilesgrave Regional School District strongly supports the proposed addition of "telephone broadcast messaging to the list of services eligible for support under the schools and libraries rate.

Communication with homes is very important to school personnel and is one of the latest technologies available to schools.