

Dear FCC,

Paid-for product placement and embedded advertisements violate a viewers' right to know they are being advertised to. The embedded advertisements are inherently deceptive and simultaneous disclosure is necessary to cure this problem. The FCC should implement a policy of requiring simultaneous disclosure of any and all paid-for product placements on network television.