

I have been receiving so called "broadband" for several years. every ISP I switch to is pathetic, they hardly give you a fraction of the bandwidth they advertise and never give enough upload. I request that you revise your report on this and tell the real truth about Americas sorry state of Internet connectivity. Just look at Japan or Great Britain They have several times the broadband speed for much cheaper. Please Reconsider this report and let conguess know the truth .