

The spread of wireless towers concerns me as I have read the research on the harm to individuals health. I think it is necessary to take this research into consideration before you grant wireless companies to put cell towers across our nation.