

As a Pastor and Music Industry Professional I am respectfully asking you to PLEASE not change the rules governing wireless microphones and other wireless audio equipment. This would have a tremendous negative impact on millions of people costing millions of dollars. Many of us are in a bad place as it is, please don't make it worse! Sincerely, Rick Cua