

I would like to register my opposition to this ruling that will result in the loss of frequency spaces for wireless microphones.

To allow consumer wireless devices - mobile phones, BlackBerry's, etc. - to access the internet using the same frequencies currently used by wireless audio equipment will be catastrophic to those who use wireless audio equipment.

Please do not allow this regulation to be passed.