

I am writing to register my support of the licensed lite format.
We are Internet users who signed up for broadband wireless two years ago with our ISP. Even today, two years later, there is no other provider of broadband in our area! This service is needed, and should be allowed to expand.

Al d'Entremont