Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation (WC Docket 07-52)

Dear Ms. Dortch,

This letter is to advise you that on Friday November 14, 2008, Ben Scott, Derek Turner and Chris Riley of Free Press met with Dana Shaffer, Chief of the Wireline Competition Bureau; Julie Veach, Deputy Bureau Chief of the Wireline Competition Bureau; and Amy Bender, legal advisor to Chairman Martin.

We discussed the status of the proceedings listed above regarding network management practices of broadband service providers. Specifically, we reiterated the arguments of the written ex parte letter of Free Press, filed October 24, 2008, requesting that the Commission release a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to propose that all broadband service providers disclose network activities that monitor or interfere with communications by end users to access or share lawful content and applications on the Internet. We highlighted the importance and the feasibility of meaningful disclosure of provider practices, and we emphasized that disclosure requirements ought to apply across all technologies.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "B. Scott", with a long horizontal line extending from the end of the signature.

Ben Scott, Policy Director
Free Press, Washington Office
