

This looks and sounds like the "Fairness Doctrine" which is camouflaged censorship of dissenting voices.

I feel this is not the American way and is not a good idea at all.

Are we now using China's playbook on how to handle dissension???