

Do not attempt to decrease or eliminate programming from conservative talk shows, including national shows of this type. This would be a serious infringement of our Constitutional rights to free speech and freedom of the press. This is not China, and we do not want Big Brother telling us what we can listen to.

It would be a much more appropriate use of your time to hold stations and hosts accountable for using profanity and foul language. When families are afraid to use the 'scan' button on their radios because they don't want their children to be exposed to foul language by radio hosts and in song lyrics, it is also a loss of freedom. The freedom of speech practiced by foul-mouthed hosts and musicians is abusive to audiences, who have the right to be free of verbal abuse.