Re: Applications of U.S. South Communications, Inc. d/b/a U.S. South d/b/a INCOMM (Transferor) and First Data Corporation (Transferee) Under Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as Amended, for Transfer of Control of Blanket Domestic and Global International Resale
Authority (ITC-214-19950515-00037)
WC Docket No. 08-69 (DA 08-1534, rel. June 30, 2008)
and
File No. ITC-T/C-20080609-00258 (DA 08-1584, rel. July 2, 2008)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of First Data Corporation ("First Data") and U.S. South Communications, Inc. d/b/a U.S. South d/b/a INCOMM ("U.S. South") (collectively, the "Parties"), and pursuant to section 63.24(e)(4) of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(e)(4), we hereby give notification that the Parties have decided not to consummate the proposed transfer of control approved by the International Bureau and the Wireline Competition Bureau in the above-referenced proceedings. Instead, First Data and U.S. South's parent company, Incomm, have mutually agreed to terminate the planned acquisition of Incomm, which would have included the transfer of control of U.S. South to First Data. A copy of the parties' joint press release is attached. Accordingly, U.S. South will retain its existing blanket domestic Section 214 authority, and its International Section 214 authorization, File No. ITC-214-19950515-00037.

U.S. South's customers will not be affected by this decision, and all customers will be updated regarding this change by U.S. South.

First Data and InComm Mutually Agree To Terminate Acquisition Plan

DENVER & ATLANTA — Nov. 4, 2008 — First Data, a global leader in electronic commerce and payment processing services, and InComm, an industry leading marketer and distributor of stored value, gift and prepaid products, announced today that they have mutually agreed to terminate the planned acquisition of InComm.

Instead, First Data and InComm have signed a distribution agreement and will continue to support their joint customers with prepaid card processing, program management and a distribution network that allows First Data and its merchants to sell prepaid products in InComm prepaid card malls.

"First Data and InComm are leaders in the stored value market, and we're pleased to continue working together to deliver tremendous value to our mutual customers," said Brooks Smith, president and chief executive officer of InComm.

"As a strategic partner for many years, this decision lets both parties focus on the unique value we each bring to our mutual customers and the market," said Ed Labry, president of First Data's USA division. "We look forward to continuing our relationship with InComm and building on the successful relationships we have with our customers."

About InComm

InComm is a leader in the marketing, distributing and technology innovation of stored-value gift and prepaid products using state-of-the-art point-of-sale transaction technology and payment solutions to revolutionize retail product sales and customer experiences.
