

It has been documented that pornography increases incidence of violence against women and children. Therefore, it makes sense as social policy to limit the access to porn as the opportunity arises. This is a perfect instance for Time-Warner to demonstrate good corporate citizenship. Thank you!