

Concerning Time Warner's request to spin off its cable division, the FCC should require Time Warner to cease the distribution of pornography, which is harmful to children, women, families, and the community at large.