

My family and I oppose any attempt to circumvent Indiana's do not call registry. We can explicitly express our agreement with certain businesses for telephonic communications. As we have seen, de-regulated businesses can get out-of-hand given unbridled opportunities. Please do not approve the Consumer Banker's Association petition. We in Indiana have chosen through legislative process to protect our privacy. Truly, Indiana residents clearly want their telephonic privacy respected.