CGB-CC-0842 – Opposition to the Petition for Exemption from Closed Captioning Requirements Filed by In Your Backyard Iowa LLC

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Telecommunications for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Inc. (“TDI”), National Association for the Deaf (“NAD”), Deaf and Hard of Hearing Consumer Advocacy Network (“DHHCAN”), Hearing Loss Association of America (“HLAA”), Association of Late-Deafened Adults, Inc. (“ALDA”), American Association of People with Disabilities (“AAPD”), and California Coalition of Agencies Serving the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (“CCASDHH”) (collectively, “Commenters”) submit for filing in the above-captioned proceeding their opposition to the petition for exemption from the Commission’s closed captioning requirements filed by In Your Backyard Iowa LLC for its program “Backyard Iowa”(the “Petition”).

The following is a summary of pertinent program, financial, and other information provided in the Petition:

Petitioner produces 26 episodes of a 30-minute program about hunting and fishing in Iowa that airs on seven stations in Iowa and Nebraska. Petitioner indicates that airtime costs $645 per week or $16,775 for 26 weeks. Petitioner also indicates the average production cost per show is $500 and that no salaries are available to Petitioner’s two partners. Petitioner estimates that closed captioning will cost $265 per episode or $6,890 for 26 episodes. Petitioner provided 2007 financial information showing income of $10,885 and net loss of $1,895. Petitioner estimates its 2008 gross income will be $30,000. Petitioner stated its goal is to provide closed captioning “as soon as our income level can provide for it. Our Goal for this is the 2009 season.” Petitioner did not provide any indication that Petitioner sought competitive pricing from multiple sources or sought to recoup the cost of closed captioning. Petitioner provided an affidavit.

Commenters believe that the Petitioner has provided information that suggests that compliance with the closed captioning requirements would impose an undue burden under the Commission's existing waiver standards.¹ Commenters recommend that the Petitioner be given a temporary exemption of two (2) years to comply with the closed captioning rules.

I. The Legal Standard for Granting a Petition for Exemption

Section 713 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), requires that video programming be closed captioned, regardless of distribution technologies, to ensure that it is accessible to persons with hearing disabilities.² The Commission has the authority to grant a petition for an exemption from the closed captioning requirements upon a showing that the requirements would impose an undue burden on the video programming provider or video owner.³ Congress defined "undue burden" to mean "significant difficulty or expense."⁴

A petition seeking a waiver of the captioning rules must demonstrate that compliance would result in an undue burden within the meaning of Section 713(e) and Section 79.1(f) of the Commission's rules.⁵ Section 713 requires the Commission to consider four factors when determining whether the closed captioning requirements will impose an undue burden: (1) the nature and cost of the closed captions for the programming; (2) the impact on the operation of the provider or program owner; (3) the financial resources of the provider or program owner; and (4) the type of operations of the provider or program owner.⁶

Section 79.1(f) of the Commission's rules sets forth the Commission's procedures for seeking an exemption from the closed captioning requirements on the basis that compliance would impose an undue burden on the programmer.⁷ A petition for an exemption from the closed captioning requirements must be supported by sufficient evidence to demonstrate that compliance with the requirements would cause an undue burden.⁸ Such petition must contain a detailed, full showing, supported by affidavit, of any facts or considerations relied on by the petitioner.⁹ It must also describe any available alternatives that might constitute a reasonable substitute for the captioning requirements.¹⁰

In the 2006 Anglers Exemption Order, the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau ("CGB") improperly created a new standard that ignored the "undue burden" analysis required by the Act, the Commission's rules, and Commission precedent. Instead, the CGB stated that any non-profit organization may be granted a waiver from the closed captioning rules if the organization does not receive compensation for airing its programming and if it may terminate or substantially curtail its programming or other activities important to its mission if it is required to caption its programming.¹¹ The Commission may not properly rely on the Anglers Exemption Order to determine whether Petitioner's request meets the undue burden standard. Commenters have sought review of the Anglers Exemption Order by the Commission and, accordingly, the Anglers Exemption Order is not final.¹² Moreover, the standard announced by the CGB in the Anglers Exemption Order was inappropriate because it failed to incorporate an "economically burdensome" or an "undue burden" standard as mandated by the Act and fails to require Petitioner to demonstrate the four factors listed above.

II. Conclusion

Commenters agree that the Petitioner has provided information that suggests that compliance with the closed captioning requirements would in fact impose an undue burden under the Commission's existing waiver standards. As such, Commenters recommend that the Petitioner be given a temporary exemption of two (2) years to comply with the closed captioning rules.

In addition, Commenters respectfully request that the Commission accept the attached certification that the facts and considerations in this filing are true and correct and waive the requirement to provide an affidavit for a responsive pleading.¹³
