

I was under the impression before the merger between XM Radio and Sirius, that once the monopoly was formed, there would be no increase in the rates charged. Well, in a recent email from XM I was told that there would be an increase for my second the third radios of $2 per month. That does not sound like NO INCREASE!!!!