

I ask that you please grant all three Public, Educational and Government Access Petitions. It is important to have easy access to the valuable local information provided by these channels, and for the FCC to stand by the Federal Government's commitment to localism and diversity.