

Under the current rules a provider with an exclusive bulk billed contract with an MDU can require a blind and deaf resident of the MDU to take and pay for cable TV - internet service.

How the commissioners possibly agree that this is a rule that benefits the public?