

I want to support a requirement that all video electronic devices to help protect our children. With the amount of unsuitable material that is aired on TV parents need some way to help monitor and control what their children watch.