

We need a filter on all television to block language. TVGuardian is an excellent example to achieve this. We have to subject our kids to foul language that they should not hear even on the Disney Channels. I guess we could ban our kids from TV, but we were just in Branson at a Motel and changing channels and watching a comedian(acting like George Bush) that I thought was funny and all of a sudden he came out with this comment "They can just suck my D" in front of my 14 year old daughter. At home, at least I can block, with dish network, shows such as this with my rating blocks. In a motel room, I can't block anything. And people wonder why the kids are the way they are today. We need some censorship provided by parents.
