

TVGuardian has had a huge impact on our family. We have been able to watch many movies with our children that we normally could not watch due to offensive language. We specifically bought a DVD player that had TVGuardian installed. There are many shows on TV that we would watch if we did not have to worry about offensive language.