

Me and my family got one of the first TV Guardians when it first came out. We loved it. We watched movies we would otherwise not have watched because of the language. Now our DVD player has the TV Guardian on it and we continue to enjoy a wide range of shows, but we would love for it to be available on more things such as our satellite, cable & internet. It greatly improves our viewing time as a conservative Christian family!