

I would love to see TV Guardian become available through Dish Network. We love to watch movies as a family but because of all the bad language it is hard to find decent ones to watch.