

We need to assure families that offensive, obtrusive, abusive, and obscene language can be eliminated from the public airwaves before entering the home. Such products as the TV Guardian are to be desired rather than overt censorship. Please support home control over media entering our homes.