

I would like for all networks to be required to close-caption their programming.