

I just want you to know how important TV guardian has been to our family. We have used it for years (withing our VHS/DVD players). If this product was not available, or was discontinued, we would be watching quite a bit less movies, as it is important to us to have the option of omitting foul language.
Thank You